Program/Construction Management

Bovis Lend Lease is managing the construction of new, company-owned and franchised Elevation Burger restaurants, beginning with two locations in Washington, D.C., followed with 30 to 60 locations in 2010 and 60 to 90 locations in 2011.

All proposed retail locations, each approximately 2,000 square feet, are targeting LEED certification, and will include bamboo tables and flooring among the sustainable features.

Elevation Burger boasts of "...quality ingredients such as organic, grass-fed, free-range beef and 100% olive oil, and a commitment to offering its guests a nutritionally superior product, putting people and product ahead of profit"
